

MAY 22 2014

VANCOUVER COAL GROUP NETWORKING EVENING

Guest Speaker: Angus Christie

The Peace River Coalfield: Walking the Tightrope

Angus has over thirty-five years' experience in coal, CBM, oil sand and metal deposits. His diversified career includes heading up public companies, project management, underground and open pit mining, site safety, business development, operations improvement and technical evaluations in South Africa, Australia, Colombia, Venezuela and Canada.

Angus's involvement in the Peace River Coalfield commenced in 2005. Since then he has developed a broad and intimate knowledge not only of the coal resources and reserves of northeast British Columbia, but also the infrastructure, environmental and community issues, regulatory processes and product characteristics that are such important considerations in developing a mining operation.
